Dear Class,

We've worked to the best of our ability and knowledge. We've struggled through high costs of material, scarcity of film and many other disappointments, but we've had a lot of fun doing it. We've tried to include everything that you might want to read and recall, after you have ceased to be Seniors at Howland School.

This is Our book, yours and mine, and it's meant to be a sort of memory record of your pals, your school, your teachers, and your fun!

MR. H. J. HANSON

The Class of 1947 dedicates its Scroll to Mr. Hugh J. Hanson

To "Hughie" . . . a spoke in the perpetual cycle of wisdom, we the class of 1947 do hereby dedicate our yearbook.

Mr. Hanson has been the principal of the senior high for twenty-one years. During this time students have grown to know him as a swell fellow who is interested in all who are willing to try. He's easy to talk to, friendly but stern, and a very likeable person. We can remember that he came to the basketball games and seemed to suffer our losses as much as we did. We can remember the excuses he "okayed" when he knew we would probably never see the "dentist" of whom we spoke so glibly. We can remember the way he smiled when we asked to go to town for ads and then the week he clamped down and made us all stay in class. We can remember how he came to the proms and dances just long enough to holler, "Present!", but he was there. And we can remember the fun he always was anytime, anywhere.

We dedicate our book to a man who helped make it possible, to a man who in years to come will be loved and respected by future senior classes. To a man truly deserving of our dedication . . . to "Hughie".

MRS. HUSHER

Hep, two, three, four,
March in time,
Bend left, then right
(And finish this rhyme)

MR. WOHLGAMUTH

Rushing through the halls,
Keeping records straight,
Being a Junior Principal
Is Mr. Wohlgamuth's fate.

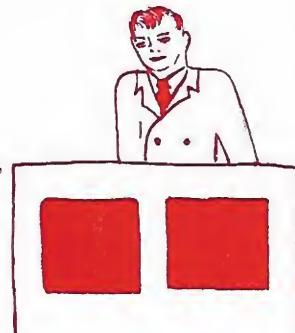

MISS BANE

Ah, that aroma that comes
From the room at the end of the hall,
'Tis only Miss Bane and her Home Ec. class
Producing "one meat ball".

MR. LEMASTERS

Lemasters is our superintendent,
Capable of his position,
Keeps a calm and level mind
Under any condition.

MR. GRIFFIN

Singing scales and arias,
Teaching us the key
Helping us to struggle through do, and re, and so, la ti.

MRS. HUMISON

Racing through the halls,
Dashing up the stairs,
Howland's efficient secretary,
Has a million cares.

MR. HANSON

"Hughie" as he's fondly called
Is a friend to all indeed
Sometimes stern, more often kindly,
He helps us all when we're in need.

MRS. GRIFFIN

Biology with insects crawling,
Is the subject of her speech,
Here we learn of the birds and bees
Mrs. Griffin knows how to teach.

MR. COE

Beloved of all both young and old,
"Prof" Coe rates high in our esteem,
Maestro of instrumental music,
Behind a baton he can be seen.

MRS. FORCE

Nurse, my head aches,
And nurse, look at my eye,
Gee, it's nice to get treatment
From such a "regular guy".

MISS NEWEY

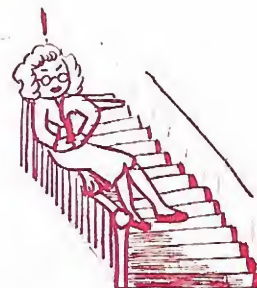

Miss Newey is one of the gang,
She's brought talent out of a shell,
By directing our plays, teaching us dates,
As a teacher she's really just swell.

MRS. JOHNSON

Full of life and animation,
Mrs. Johnson is a queen,
To endure the tribulation,
Of our reports and so-called "themes."

MR. HUSTED

His tall and stately figure,
May be seen around the halls,
"Prof" Husted knows his science,
And tries to teach us all.

MRS. BODE

Latin carols at Christmas time,
Teaching like a master,
Mrs. Bode has the knack,
For we can learn much faster.

MISS WOODFORD

With files and cards,
Pictures on the walls,
Our librarian,
Tops them all.

MRS. KINDERMAN

A bouquet to Mrs. Kinderman,
So patient her voice sounds,
While she struggles to explain,
The difference 'twix verbs and nouns.

MISS HEBNER

A mind for geometry and compass,
A protractor set real straight,
Miss Hebner is a whiz at math,
The kind we appreciate.

MR. HAMMACK

Mr. Hammack was a chemist,
But he isn't anymore,
What he thought was H₂O,
Was H₂S O₄.

MR. HIESTAND

Couch of a team that's really tops,
Mr. Hiestand is the man,
Who made the Howland quintet,
Famous throughout all the land.

MR. THOMAS

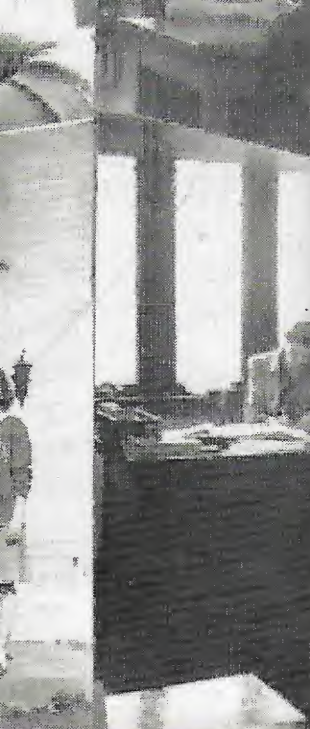

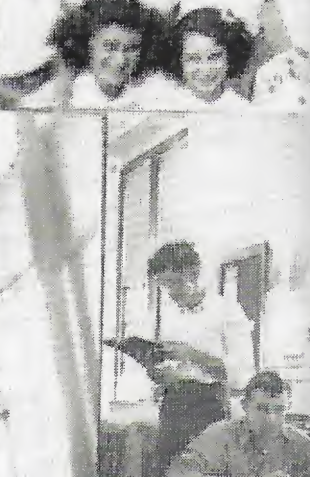

Whether it's "Si Senor" or a "Hiya there,"
Mr. Thomas is a regular guy,
He's new this year but nevertheless,
He's a part of Howland High.

MISS MARTO

A poor little typewriter up and says,
"O woe, O woe is me,"
Why doesn't Miss Marto teach those kids,
To handle me more carefully.

MRS. HUSHER

MR. HUSTED

The class of '47 is nearing the end of its high school days. We've had wonderful times while we were Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors, but the best comes last—being Seniors. And being Seniors we have many things of which to be proud. One of these is our sponsors.

Mrs. Husher and Mr. Husted have been swell about finding time in their busy schedules to assist at our class meetings and in various other ways.

Our class motto is:

"Climb, Though the Rocks Be Rugged"

In September we chose the white rose as our flower and our class colors are white and green.

Senior Play

2nd Row Seated: Phyllis Hutchison, Marilyn Budd, Shirley Buechling, Virginia Steinbeck, Donna Oaks, Martha Kostyshak, Margaret Lavelle, Bettenell Snyder.

"Incognito," a mystery in three acts, was chosen for the class play. The story of the play takes place on board the American pleasure steamer, S.S. Imperial. On board is Jagendorf, a German agent, in search of Charles Locke, a British spy who has eluded the Germans for months. Jagendorf is murdered and now who killed him and who Locke is turns into three acts of suspense. The class would like to thank their able director, Miss Lillian Newey, for the swell job she did and to all the prompters, stage-crew members, and etc. who helped make the play a success.

Teacher Tells a Joke

"Full well they laughed in counterfeited glee at all his jokes, for many a joke had he". — Goldsmith

Theme

Today, our graduation, is the end and the beginning for us, and the beginning of an end for you. We've looked forward to this day for twelve long years and now we'll admit we wouldn't mind having another year or two.

Our colleges and future positions beckon to us and we're leaving you our places to fill. Fill them with both fun and work, kids. Put memories in the book for your graduation.

We don't want to seem to be "old folks with advice" but listen just a moment, won't you?

A big war has passed and a bigger peace is now following. Do all you can to make it permanent. Don't hold prejudices against another race or person but try to understand that race or person. Understanding is the basis for world-wide peace and when you have acquired it you have done more than hundreds of other people have ever been able to do. You, and your friends, or your enemies, were all born under one sky and one God. You were born with equality, but someone decided he was a little better than someone else and began to convince others that they were too. Today that group has succeeded in building up a hatred among his fellow-man that never should have existed. An example of this is right here in your school. Is there one of you who can say you don't have a particular group you pal around with? Is there one of you who doesn't think you're just a little smarter than some other person, a little better-looking, or a little more popular? Is there? Speak up, if there is. And now, starting now, try to understand just one person every day and make it a seven-day week, not a three or four-day week. You'll be surprised how many more friends you have, and how nice the people are whom you've always ignored. Remember that if we all did our part toward understanding the other fellow we could keep the peace we love, as friends, as neighbors, and as a nation.

Climb the twelve rungs of education carefully. We have struggled up and we know what they're like.

The first six with the tedious spelling words, the long-anticipated recess, the apples for the teacher, and the long curls and ink bottles. The seventh and eighth rungs containing a feeling of superiority the spitballs, and gangly-legged girls admired by bashful boys. Then at last the freshman year and ball games, class parties, swapped notes and jive talk. Only it didn't last long, for just as that rung weakened the bigger, more important sophomore days followed on another step and then bang! We were juniors and we were excused for any old reason; we were on good (?) terms with "Hughie" and classes were things to go to when you were tired of everything else.

Now we've climbed on up and we've been seniors for nine months.

We've had our share of fun, our disappointments, our best friends, and favorite teachers. We've grown from knickers to caps and gowns and now it's yours . . . all yours.

Watch your step, kids, take a deep breath at the end of each rung, and we'll meet you . . . at the top.

Sincerely,

"The Graduating Class of 1947"

BOY'S BASEBALL

The team this year was off to a slow start but they rapidly gained headway. The only veterans on the team were Red Shaffer, Bill Steinbaugh and Bill Latham. As usual rain interferred and the game with Champion was played all the way through in a continual down-pour. The team lost to Leavittsburg and Liberty but they won over Champion and Mineral Ridge.

3rd Row: Paul Jaussen, Allen Heilman, Kennety Vesper, Merlin Valot, Ralph Palette, Thomas Ramsey, Robert Lott, Robert Nelson, Sammy Hernandez.

2nd Row: Jack Shelar, Coach Heistand, Bill Latham, Bill Steinbaugh, Rolland Shafer, Thomas Lawrence, Ralph Dula, John Pawlosky.

1st Row: Beatrice Gillette, Gloria Thompson, Mrs. Husher, Agnes Lushina, Betty Ostrander, Margaret Lavelle, Hazel Whitman, Carol Mansell.

GIRL'S BASEBALL

Mrs. Husher, girl's physical education teacher, and her team of battling baseball players had an exciting win-and-loss season. But one thing we liked—they were excellent sports, no matter what the score, and good sportsmanship stands high in any field.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The season opened with a loss for Howland but the team soon found their bearings and went on to many victories. Encouraged and tremendously helped by Coach Hiestand they steadily rapped up points. The season ended for Howland at the quarter-finals of the T. I. A. tournament when the team was defeated by Champion. The consolation game with Braceville was won but Howland was completely eliminated when they were met by Springfield.

1st Row: Standing: Kenneth Vesper, Bob Nelson, Don Hake, Arthur Kovacs, Edward Thomas, Harold Keefner, Coach Hiestand.

1st Row Standing: Jack Shelar, John Griffith, Harvey Burrows, Jerry Jones, Coach Hiestand.
 2nd Row Seated: Louie DeCapito, Merlin Valet, Robert Lott, Mike Sanders, Ralph Palette, and William Streb.
 Center: Kenneth Vesper

RESERVE BASKETBALL

The up and coming varsity team is the Howland Reserves. From a slow start they are fast working up and show great promise. At the middle of the season they lost only four games out of ten.

The team is again expected to be the final victors of the tournament. They have won the tournament for the last three years, and this we hope will be the fourth.

pep rallies, concerts, and etc., and the patient man with the red ties and flashing baton, compose the Howland Band. Mr. Coe and his brigade have wins and blue ribbons to their credit and as sixty strong they give out with music of all types — hot, sentimental, and classic.

Operetta

"In Old Louisiana" was one of the main events of the year. It was a musical comedy in three acts presented by the A Capella Choir and the Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Griffin. It was centered around an old river pilot's plantation on the banks of the Mississippi in the summer of 1852.

The girls, dressed in hoop skirts and curls, and the fellows, in tight-fitting trousers, added to the first operetta at Howland.

National Honor Society

We're proud to be represented by this group of students who were chosen by their teachers as being outstanding. They not only have good scholastic records but also a wide interest in all activities of the school.

The "Scoop", Howland's monthly paper, is certainly a very vital part of the student life. Half of Howland wouldn't be "in the know" if it weren't for the helpful "Scoop Snoops". Besides this, the paper features editorials, feature stories, club news, fashions, musical news, current topics, and Bolindale news.

The staff is composed of those people who are interested in writing and publishing a newspaper.

Mrs. Johnson sponsors the Scoop and Miss Marto supervises the printing.

Deb Club is an elective organization consisting of eight junior girls and eight senior girls, plus two sponsors. This year the sponsors are Mrs. Ray Kinderman and Miss Lillian Newey who have entered enthusiastically into all activities of the club. The Club this year sponsored a formal dance in March, and an excellent time was had by all.

Democracy Club

This club was organized in 1945 by Mr. Taylor, and this year carried on by Mr. Thomas and Mr. Hanson. Its purpose is the discussion of current events and politics and is followed by a little snack. Meetings are held once a month at the different members homes.

3rd Row: Joseph Martino, Kenneth Ostrander, Kenneth Pelton.
 2nd Row: Merlin Valot, Jack Shelar, Ward Crawford, John Hall, Frank Stein, Donald Randall, Robert Shannon.
 1st Row: Glenn Swindler, Alex Barna, Ralph Bee, Jack Donley, Mr. Hammack, Bill Pollard, Robert Gilmore, Carl Behrens.

Visual Aid Club

Remember the interesting shows in Science, Biology, Chemistry and Physics? Blame it on the Visual Aid Club.

The club was organized by Mr. Husted, and has since been taken over by Mr. Hammack.

Its purpose is to show movies during assemblies, at noon, and to classes. The club also teaches the members the mechanics of cameras and all the "stuff" that goes with them.

With representatives from each high school class the Student Senate's purpose is to form a better government within the school. This year they accomplished the assigning of hall monitors, the planning and sponsoring of several dances, tournaments, cheerleaders, and pep rallies.
